

Figure 1 displays a 10x10 grid of small plots, each showing the probability distribution of the number of infected individuals (x-axis, 0 to 10) over time (y-axis, 0 to 10). The plots illustrate the evolution of the distribution, showing a shift from a single peak at 0 to a broader distribution peaking around 5.